Choir of King's College, Cambridge

The Choir of King's College Cambridge is world famous because of its unique sound. This sound can be contributed to its make up, as it is a men only choir with the fabulous quality of their choristers, but certainly also to the magical acoustics of their chapel.

Stephen Cleobury recorded three masterworks with them for House of Classics: Bach's St. Matthew and St. John Passions and Handel's Messiah. With the Brandenburg Consort under Roy Goodman as the accompanying orchestra, this set has established itself as one of the best sets available for these popular pieces on the market.

Added to each of these recordings is a bonus DVD with the filmed performances. This unique feature makes this set irresistible.
